

Mid Point Review – Part Time Year 1 2013

Printmaking: Wednesday 5th June, 10am prompt start

The mid point review is a chance to reflect upon for your professional practice and learning development in Unit 1. In a student-led group session, your peers will discuss your work and the student whose work is being discussed will take notes.

Your peers and tutors will provide feedback of progress to date.

- Please select a new / unseen piece of completed work that is part of your project proposal work for the discussion to focus on.

Please complete and email to Jo by 31st May:

Briefly write (400 words maximum) on the following:

1. Evaluation of my project proposal as a part of a self directed programme of study
2. Where I need to develop study plans in relation to the Unit 1 Learning Outcomes

(refer to the handbook - the Unit 1 Learning outcomes are:

- Develop your Project Proposal to plan a challenging and self-directed programme of study.
- Demonstrate a critical engagement with practice-based research and contribute actively to debate and discussion.
- Articulate a clear understanding of the methodology and context of your creative practice in both written and verbal forms.)
